

Opening Hymn: Colours Of Day

Celebrant: Fr. Noel McGahan

Welcome and God's Blessing on everyone here present.

The Lord be with you.

All: And with your Spirit.

Introduction:

Liturgy of the Word:

First Reading: Sé Devlin

A Reading from the Book of Genesis:

God said let there be lights in the vault of heaven to divide day from night, and let them indicate festivals, days and years. Let there be lights in the vaults of heaven to shine on the earth. And so it was. God made the two great lights. The greater light to govern the day, the smaller light to govern the night, and the stars. God set them in the vault of heaven to shine on the earth, to govern the day and the night and to divide light from darkness. God saw it was good. Evening came and morning came the fourth day.

The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm: As The Deer (Sung) Ciaran McCarroll and Paris-Rose O'Hanlon

Gospel Acclamation:

Gospel:

A Reading from the Gospel according to St. Matthew:

You are the light of the world. A city built on a hilltop cannot be hidden. No one lights a lamp to put it under a tub; they put it on a lamp stand where it shines for everyone in the house. In the same way your light must shine in the sight of everyone, so that, seeing your good works, they may give the praise to your Father in heaven.

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily:

We the teachers have been privileged to help these boys and girls to a deeper understanding of God's great love for them and his abiding presence with them. Our wish and our prayer for them is that they will always have great faith in the power of the Holy Spirit in their lives and that by word and deed they will always have great faith in the power of the Holy Spirit in their lives and that by word and deed they will always spread God's Kingdom.

We thank the Teachers and ask God to bless them, they have given us wisdom, understanding and learning, may they be rewarded in heaven and on earth for helping to keep the light of faith burning in our lives.

There are the sons and daughters given to us by God, to be loved and cherished, healed and helped, scolded and forgiven, advised and warned, to be led by us in to the fullness of manhood and womanhood. God or Father, we thank you for them. We thank you in a special way this evening that you know each one by name, that you are calling them into a deeper relationship with you and strengthen them with the gift of the Holy Spirit. May we be faithful to the desire to hand on to them, as a most precious gift the Light of Faith.
